

Check your list for To Dos and Holds.

To review any Holds or To Do items listed on your student account, simply log into My ASU at my.asu.edu and review the Priority Tasks section on the right side of the screen. To Dos and Hold items indicate actions you need to take to stay on track with your degree program requirements and student responsibilities, such as paying your tuition or making an appointment with your advisor. Click on the name of the Hold or To Do item for instructions on what to do next. Once you've successfully completed the item, it should disappear from your list.
